Paducah, Ky., April 7.—Co-operation of the State soldiers with County Judge A. J. G. Wells at Murray will result in the arrest of at least ten men before the end of the week, this information coming from an authoritative source.

The night patrols and the day patrols have resulted in the gathering of much evidence that has been conveyed to Judge Wells. Warrants for ten alleged night riders have already been issued and the soldiers will commence to-day or to-morrow to serve them. Every man arrested will be arraigned before the County Judge for preliminary hearing.

The County Judge and company officers refuse to make a statement regarding the matter. The ten arrests may be the first installment of a large band.

Maj. Albrecht and Capt. J. L. Givens, of Company H., arrived at Murray last night from Hopkinsville. To-day they held a long conference with Judge Wells. It is said that they planned the course to pursue in the future. This is Maj. Albrecht's first visit to Murray. The soldiers at Murray belong to Capt. Givens' company. Maj. Albrecht is inspecting the troops in Western Kentucky.

He was at Eddyville yesterday where the soldiers have succeeded in rounding up alleged night riders. All of the 16 men indicted for taking

NEVER HAD A PHYSICIAN

Woman Nearly 100 Years Old Dies Near Glasgow.

Glasgow, Ky., April 2.—Miss Fannie Lain, said to be the oldest woman of this county, died at her home near Bewleytown this morning, after a short illness of grip. She was 99 years, 3 months and 8 days old today. She was born, reared and lived all her life on the farm where she died. During her entire life she never had a physician called to see her and had never taken a dose of medicine prescribed by a physician, even in her last illness. She always claimed that medicine killed more people than it cured and would not depart from this rule. During her long life she was blessed with unusually good health and was a woman of fine intellect and unusually strong mind. The remains will be interred in the family burying ground on the old farm where she lived.

KENTUCKY PREACHER.

The Rev. M. F. Ham Ordered To Leave New Orleans.

New Orleans, April 3.—A threatening letter created excitement here today at the recently-erected tabernacle of the Rev. M. F. Ham, a Kentucky evangelist, who has been preaching on "The Signs of Racetrack Gambling and Liqueur Traffic." The letter declared the evangelist would be killed unless he left town within forty-eight hours. It was elaborately embellished with drawings of skulls and crossbones and ended by saying:

"Remember that you will never see sunset again in old Kentucky unless you leave immediately." Signed, "Free Thinkers' Society of Texas."

Mr. Ham took the matter seriously, but the police say the letter was sent as a joke.

SYMPATHETIC STRIKES

To Prevent Employer From Conducting "Open Shop" Illegal.

Boston, April 3.—In a decision handed down today the Massachusetts Supreme Court declares that sympathetic strikes for the purpose of preventing an employer from conducting an "open shop" are illegal. The court's decision was rendered in the case of nine firms of building contractors in Lynn, who applied for an injunction restraining the Lynn Building Trades' Council and several affiliated unions from enforcing a sympathetic strike against the employers over the issue of an "open shop." In the Superior Court a permanent injunction against the unions was issued and the case went to the Supreme Court on an appeal.

MUNICIPAL UNLAW.

By JOHN KENDRICK BANGS.

Cincinnati is talking of electing "honest and efficient men for public office." We shall watch the experiment with deep interest. If it proves successful in Cincinnati there is no reason why other American cities should not at least try it for themselves. We never know what we can do until we make an effort.

Nobody will deny, we fancy, the probable efficiency of a municipal democracy. The very best medicine to take in such a case is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Made without alcohol or dangerous drugs, it contains that rare combination of native medicinal roots that will allow a cough (run it out) as it were, restore the circulation, assist the appetite and digestion, and consequently restore tone to the entire system. That is the reason people look happy once more after taking it—they feel like living, because their liver is active, the blood in their arteries is full of the life-giving quality-rich, red blood. The blood in turn feeds the nerves.

Nervousness and neuralgia are only the indication that the nerves are not fed on invigorating blood. This "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce is nature's own restorer. It tones up the organism and invigorates its functions, furnishing to the body one of its necessary constituent principles of which it is in need. This preparation is of pleasant taste, agrees perfectly with rebellious and sensitive stomachs, and is extremely effective in restoring tone and vigor to the entire system. It cures troubles of the stomach and at the same time the blood vessels are given such a toning up as to

The man who said that figures never lie would probably have modified his assertion somewhat if he had hired an expert accountant to go over the accounts of these very profitable municipal ownership ventures that so successfully "reduce" taxation in British communities while multiplying the public debt by 10, as in case of Birmingham. A figure may be the most truthful thing in the world and yet betray vast imaginative powers when it gets down to business in the hands of an official "reporter" who wants to hold his job.

The verb "to graft" means to insert into a plant—this is to say, when you insert a politician into a gas plant, or a power plant, or an electric light plant, or a street car plant, you get a complete case of graft. What is to be said against municipal ownership, on its behalf it must be admitted that for the expert professional grafter it affords an abundant field of endeavor and one which he will not be slow to let die of neglect. The only question is whether or not the process will improve the breed.

The inevitable issue of the Tom Johnson system of municipal ownership of the street railways will be the establishment of the zone system of fare collection—that is, instead of one fare the consumer will be called upon to pay three or four fares unless, of course, he prefers the ozone system, which involves the return to the old fashioned method of transportation known as "chuck's" mare," so popular with our forefathers.

It is reported that the municipal pawnshops of Paris are a failure. It is a pity. It will leave the British humorists from talking about municipal pawnshops, and that will be a real loss to lovers of that particular kind of humor all over the world.

When Tammany gets control of all New York's public utilities, will Tammany Hall be known as the power house or the grand central station?

We cannot be outdone in enterprise by our esteemed contemporaries, and we therefore offer our readers a missing line merrick, for the best completion of which received between now and February 22, 1907, we offer an abandoned municipal gas factory as a first prize, an unpaid tax bill for the second best and a booty prize of $10 in real stage money for the worst. The first four lines of our prize merrick are as follows:

A city that made its own light One dark and November night Went out to its pain, Mid the sleet and the rain,

Every reply must be written on the above blank line and sent anonymously to the merrick editor of Municipalum, the Earth, Solar System. No attention will be paid to communications not received.

AN ALMOST UNANIMOUS VOTE

The Citizens of Trenton, Mich., Are All Glad to Be Rid of a Bureaucracy.

By a vote of 122 to 12 the village recently decided to sell for $5,000 the electric light plant, installed in 1902, and the waterworks (except the distributing system), installed in 1890. The original cost of the latter was $8,000, while $10,000 had been expended on the former. As a result of placing these plants in a public street the village had been engaged in litigation for five years, the final decision being against it.

In 1903 the building was destroyed by fire. Although it was insured and rebuilt, the plant has not been well kept up since, and there have been the usual differences between the council, the superintendent and the water and electric local, finally resulting in abolishing the board.

An investigation by the council disclosed the fact that, aside from depreciation, the plant was losing at least $400 a year and this loss would be considerably increased if they undertook to give the twenty-four hour service desired by some of the citizens. Their conclusion was that the plant was unsalvageable and was sustained by an almost unanimous vote of the qualified electors.

The latest report of the government telegraph and telephone of Great Britain shows a loss for the year of $5,000,000.

APRIL 17 IS TO BE ARBOR DAY

Acting Governor Cox Selects That Day—Makes Holidays For Schools.

Call For Planting of Many More Trees.

Frankfort, Ky., April 4.—The following Arbor day proclamation was issued last night by Acting Governor Cox:

"I, William H. Cox, Acting Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do designate Friday, April 17, as Arbor day.

"Tree-planting, as is well known, is the object for which this day was established and it is certainly an object that should inspire in itself interest on the part of every public-spirited citizen of this Commonwealth. Tree-planting is a valuable public improvement, as well as a beautifier. Its neglect by past generations, the devastation and destruction of numerous varieties in mountain forests, as well as of woodland for purposes of private gain, has alarmed the Government authorities, who are taking vigorous measures toward adopting practical methods of restoration.

I recommend that Arbor day be considered a holiday in all the schools, that the school authorities take this occasion to beautify the grounds about the school buildings by planting trees. The county school superintendents are respectfully requested to publish this proclamation throughout their respective counties, and to encourage the teachers to take an active interest in the day.

I invite the authorities of every city and town in the State to look into the tree question of their respective communities, and to take steps toward the proper observance of the day.

Done at the executive office this first day of April, nineteen hundred and eight.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the Commonwealth."

"WILLIAM H. COX,
Acting Governor.
"Attest: BEN L. BRUNER, Secretary of State."

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and en-

FIELD NOTES.

What The Night Riders Are Doing in Kentucky.

A Paducah dispatch says "Henry Bennett, who was whipped by night riders at Dycusburg and shot through the ear, says he will move to Tennessee, as he has been repeatedly warned by night riders that he must leave or be killed. They fear his testimony, as he says only one man was masked, and he compelled one boy to confess to being in the raid. Bennett said the night riders' password was 'Blow out the lamp.' He is a cousin of Vaughan Bennett, who was killed by a posse near Clarksville, Tenn."

Clark county has been singularly free from the troubles that have grown out of the tobacco situation, but last night a band of night riders visited the residence of Aquilla Thomas, a tenant on the farm of Mrs. Lizzie Gail, and tore up his tobacco beds, rolling the canvas up and throwing it into the road. Will Keen and James Terry, tenants on the farm of Will Sphar, assistant cashier of the Winchester bank, were also visited and letters left warning them to take the covers from their beds and abandon them or they would be visited again.

Itch! Itch! Itch!—Scratch! Scratch!
Scratch! The more you scratch the worse the itch. Try Doan's Ointment. It cures piles, eczema, any skin itching. All druggists sell it.

Bennett's Walk-over.
Delegates to the Ninth district Republican convention were elected, and instructions were given in all thirteen counties for the renomaination of Congressman J. B. Bennett.

The Weather.

Fair and cooler Thursday.

Congressman A. L. Brick, of Indiana, died Tuesday.

Waiters went on a strike and refused to serve the meal at the Bryan banquet Tuesday night in Denver.
The speaking went ahead without the eating.

Gaines, of Tennessee, and Burleson, of Texas, engaged in a hot debate on whether or not muleshoe should be destroyed as a "parasite." Gaines won and the Christmas emblem remains.

The announcement that both Gray and Johnson are actively in the race for President at Denver, does not alter the fact recognized by everybody that Bryan will be nominated on the first ballot.

In a charge to the grand jury at Frankfort Judge Stout ordered an investigation into the reports of the alleged bribery of certain legislators in connection with the senatorial race.

Five persons were shot to death and fifty others wounded by soldiers Monday evening after the voting in the election in Lisbon, Portugal, had ended. The rioting was widespread.

Judge Reed and Judge Parker, two more circuit judges, have come out strong against night riding and urged their grand juries to make rigid investigations.

Englar's sick Premier, Campbell Bannerman, has resigned and Herbert A. Asquith has been summoned by King Edward to form a new Cabinet.

Cincinnati is very much elated over the fact that the Bluegrass warehouses are shipping their stocks of tobacco to that city and not to Louisville. The night riders are giving Cincinnati an advantage that the city has never been able to acquire by legitimate competition.

Those who are curious as to what goes on "behind the scenes," and what kind of people the playfolks are when their make-up is off, will be delightfully enlightened by reading the complete novel in the April Lippincott's—"They Also Serve; The Story of a Farewell Performance," by Virginia Tracy—for no truer picture of theatrical life has ever been presented.

JUDGE JAS. E. CANTRILL.

Judge James E. Cantrill, who died in Georgetown, Sunday, was born in Bourbon county, June 20, 1839. His parents were Virginians. He was educated at Georgetown College, where he was graduated in 1858.
He removed to St. Louis in 1859, where he began the practice of law.
When the Civil War broke out he returned to Kentucky and enlisted in the Confederate army, joining the Fifth Kentucky Cavalry, commanded by Col. D. Howard Smith. Later he was transferred to Gen. John H.
Morgan's command, serving under that distinguished General until his death. At the battle of Greasy Creek in 1863 he was wounded by the fragments of a bursting shell.

After the war Judge Cantrill returned to Kentucky and resumed the practice of law at Georgetown.
He took a prominent part in the councils of the Democratic party in his section and soon became known in political circles throughout the State. In 1867 he was elected Rep-lower house of the General Assembly. For several years he was Master Commissioner of the Scott Circuit Court and in 1879 was elected Lieutenant-Governor on the ticket with Gov. Luke Blackburn.

In 1892 Judge Cantrill was elevated to the bench, becoming Circuit Judge, and in 1898 he was re-elected to the Court of Appeals bench.
Shortly before the fall election in 1904 he was stricken with paralysis and never recovered, though he was well enough one time to go to Frankfort and be sworn in as a member of the Court of Appeals.

During his second term as Circuit Judge, Judge Cantrill became a national figure. He twice presided at the trials of Caleb Powers on the charge of murdering Gov. William Goebel, and was on the bench also at the trials of Henry Youtsey, James Howard and Berry Howard.

Judge Cantrill was twice married, his first wife being Miss Jennie Moore, the grand-daughter of the Rev. Barton Stone, one of the first ministers of the Christian church.
One son was born to the union, J.
Campbell Cantrill, a former State Senator, and now the head of the Society of Equity in the State of Kentucky. Mrs. Cantrill died in 1876. His second wife was Miss Mary Cecil, of Danville, who also has one son, Cecil Cantrill. Mrs.
Cantrill and both sons survive. The burial will take place to day.

Charles H. Berryman, manager of James B. Haggin's Emendorf Stock Farm, has made public the list of 31 broodmares and 11 suckling colts which were destroyed by fire at Elmendorf Sunday night. Most of the mares were young and but few of their produce had raced, but all of them were royally bred, but all of them being by such stallions as Imp. Star Ruby, Imp. Greenan, Imp.
Mimic, Imp. Diendonne and the great American racehorses African-der, Waterboy, Kilmarnock and Reliable. Probably the two most valuable of the mares were Woodford Lass, by the champion racehorse Salvator, and out of the equally famous mare Miss Woodford, and Flo-ralla, by the famous stallion Imp.
Watercross, out of Fismul, who was the greatest race mare of her day.

All of the mares destroyed which had no sucklings by their side would have foaled in a few days. The horses destroyed were valued at about $90,000, and with the barn and provisions, which were worth $10,000, making a total loss of about $100,000.

The assumption is that the fire was caused by a person or persons having a private grudge against Mr.
Haggin, Mr. Berryman or some of the overseers of the big estate. The barn which was burned was about half a mile from the stallion barn, which contained Salvator, Imp. Wa-tercross and other horses of great value, but which, however, is practically fire-proof.

Tennessee's new vagrant law has been held unconstitutional.

FIELD NOTES.

What The Night Riders Are Doing in Kentucky.

The Tobacco Association warehouse in Paducah caught fire Sunday morning, but the blaze was extinguished without great loss. The blaze is ascribed to accident. The warehouse held 1,000 hogstheads of tobacco.

Austin Howard, a negro farmer, has left McCracken county and traded his farm there for Illinois property. He had been warned to leave by night riders, and went, though promised protection by the county judge.

The large new tobacco barn on the farm of Alex. Anderson, near Kidd-ville, Clark county, burned Monday morning. The loss is $1,500, insurance $1,000. The fire was caused by incendiaries. Several other barns on the place were not molested and tobacco beds in the neighborhood being heavily guarded were not bothered. The barn destroyed was near the Montgomery county line, and belonged to Representative J.
Will Clay.

Night riders burned the tobacco barns and ruined the plant beds of Stephen Ryan at Vevay, Ind., Monday night. They left a warning that they would hang him if he planted any tobacco.

It is reported that many farmers in Union county have received letters signed "Night Riders," telling them they would be visited if they did not make new and better terms with their tenants. It is also reported that many of the leading farmers are acquiescing in the demand. The tenants are demanding two-thirds of the share crops.

An incendiary fire Tuesday at Kuttawa destroyed Marshall's livery stable and the Southern Stone Co's plant. Loss is $3,500. Mrs. Augusta Whittington, an aged woman, died as a result of excitement over the fire.

The tobacco plant beds of ten prominent farmers residing on the Hardinsburg road in a radius of four miles of Owensboro, have been thickly sown with grass seed and the plants will probably be a total loss.

Will Patterson, a farmer residing near Birmingham, Marshall county, has received a warning signed "night riders" since the adjournment of the special grand jury. It was learned that enough evidence had been secured to issue a warrant, which has been placed in the Sheriff's hands.

The barn of John Crit Story, a farmer residing two miles from Sharpe, Marshall county, was burned, together with a large amount of feed and a calf. There had been no fire about the barn and the origin is a mystery. He is a tobacco grower, but has never received any threats.

child and will move his family to Howell about June 1, at which time

Terrible Case of indigestion.
Mr. Donald Robb, Jr., 10 Wrights Ave., Nova Scotia, Canada, Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger, Independent Order of Foresters, writes:
"While on a visit to Boston I must have eaten something that did not agree with my stomach, as a terrible case of indigestion followed. Peruna was recommended to me, and after using three bottles I was entirely cured. I therefore recommend Peruna to any one suffering with stomach trouble."

Every Trace of Catarrh Gone.
Mr. James P. Bracken, 610 Tenth Ave., New York City, N. Y., has occupied the office of Water Inspector of New York City for the past fifteen years. He carries on an extensive plumbing business at 610 Tenth Ave. He is Post Deputy of Grand Knights of Reigna Cella Council Knights of Columbus, N. Y. He writes as follows:
"For nearly a dozen years catarrh has bothered me in one form or another. I was troubled with nasal catarrh, that affected my stomach, which troubled me most in the morning. My appetite was poor, and I did not seem to relish my food. Indigestion bothered me at times also."

"It was advised to take Peruna, and I took it as prescribed for a month, when my cure was almost complete. Today there is not a trace of catarrh in my system, and I can say without hesitation that Peruna cured me."

Agreeable and Effective Tonic.
Corporal John Pinn, Washington, D. C., veteran soldier of the Civil War, a prominent Grand Army man and commander of the oldest post in the United States, John A. Rawlin Post No. 1, department of the Potomac, Grand Army of the Republic, writes:
"Peruna was recommended to me by many of my associates, and I have given it a fair trial. Have found it a most agreeable and effective tonic, pleasant, soothing, and leaves one free from the deleterious effects produced by the many nostrums now on the market. I have suffered from catarrhal affections the

COL. HOMER RIGGS.

Col. Homer Riggs, Inspector General on the staff of the National Commander of the Union Veteran Legion, writes from the Pension Bureau, Washington, D. C., as follows:

Relieves Mind and Body.
Mr. G. W. Woodbury, Rogers, Ohio, formerly Captain and Center of the Hiram College Basketball Team, writes:
"When body and mind alike were weary and refused to work, a few doses of Peruna restored lost strength and invigorated quicker and more permanently than anything I know."

Unhesitatingly Recommends Peruna.
J. Edwin Brown, National Commander Army and Navy Union of U. S. A., 401 11th St., N. E. Washington, D. C., writes:
"I have no hesitation in endorsing your Peruna as a most efficient cure for catarrh. My own experience and that of many friends who have been benefited by its use recommend it to all persons suffering from that complaint."

Pe-ru-na Tablets.
For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to create Peruna in tablet form, and their strenuous labors have just been crowned with success. People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets. These tablets represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna, and each tablet is equivalent to one average dose.

The Family Relies on Pe-ru-na.
A. Hewitt Nickerson, Captain U. S. Army, Adjutant General on General McCook's staff, writes from the Census Building, Washington, D. C., as follows:
"It affords me great pleasure to commend Peruna as a most excellent tonic with many medicinal qualities that assist nature in overcoming the various ills with which the human family is often afflicted, and is always in danger."

"As a general thing, I have been opposed to what are known as patent medicines, but Peruna has long since overcome this feeling. It is now, as it has been for a long time, a well-established family medicine with us, upon which we rely to give tired nature substantial restoration."

For two years Dr. Hartman and his assistants have incessantly labored to

LOW PRICES THE CAUSE

Of Tobacco Riots Now Same as In The Year 1683.--- Growers Mistreated.

HISTORY OF THE WEED.

It Is Remarkably Interesting ---Was Used as Money In Virginia.

In 1683, an extraordinary series of occurrences grew out of the low price of tobacco, says the historian. Many people signed petitions to stop planting for one year. This request was not granted, so they banded themselves together and went through the country destroying tobacco plants wherever found. The evil grew to such an extent, the assembly passed a law that the malefactors had passed beyond the bounds of riot, and that their aim was the subversion of the government. It was enacted that if any persons to the number of eight or more, should go about destroying tobacco plants they should be adjudged traitors and suffer death. These occurrences over 200 years ago, prove that there is nothing new under the sun. Of course the good old pioneers of this country did not have the trust to contend with, but the trouble in those days proved to be overproduction.

The first law passed by the general assembly of Virginia in 1619 referred to tobacco. The price was fixed at three shillings for the best and the second sort at 18d the pound. The tobacco was inspected and if not vendable at the second price it shall then be immediately burnt before the owner's face.

Tobacco was in those days, the money used. Later, a law was passed, that if anyone missed divine service he should be fined one pound of tobacco.

In 1628, notwithstanding the law, tobacco declined in price. Then a law was passed to that effect, that no planter should plant above 2,000 plants for each member of his family. The price continued to decline. Now all the bad and half the good should be destroyed, but things gradually became worse until in 1681 a treaty was negotiated between the colonies of Maryland, Virginia and Carolina to stop planting tobacco for one year, since the markets were glutted with it, and the value was so low that the planter could not live from the results of his labor. Then followed the riots of 1683, which were followed by the strict laws as mentioned above.---Owners-Inquirer.

Beautiful and Useful Souvenirs to 2000 Callers.

The Keach Furniture Co. had their formal opening Tuesday and all day and late into the evening a stream of pleased patrons and friends of the popular furniture store visited the big establishment and were given the freedom of the four floors.

Lebkuecher's hand discoursed sweet music and the proprietors gave out hundreds of carnations and bottles of furniture polish as souvenirs to the callers.

The immense stock of goods was most attractively displayed and all who called were impressed with the wonderful growth of this house, which has in ten years, from a modest start, become the most up-to-date furniture store in Western Kentucky. Messrs. O. Keach and Harry Keach and A. W. Pyle and Mrs. Harry Keach assisted in receiving the visitors, of whom it is estimated there were fully 2,000.
